

Ramkrishna plans to increase production

Ramkrishna Forgings Limited is all set to embark on increasing its production volume. Famed for precision forging, this industrial group has emerged as a leading industrial equipment manufacturer with a flourishing market abroad, according to a press release.

With an installed annual production capacity of 24,000 tonnes of steel forgings, the company has the biggest integrated forging and CNC machining plant in the eastern region.