PART OF TRUMP'S INNER CIRCLE

Sergio Gor named US envoy to India

Also named special envoy for south and central Asian affairs

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Washington, August 23

SERGIO GOR, THE White House personnel director and a loyal member of President Donald Trump's inner circle, has been nominated as the next American envoy to India, a move that comes amid an estrangement of ties between the two countries over trade-related issues.

President Trump, announcing the nomination of 38-year-old Gort to the key ambassadorial position, said he will also serve as the special envoy for South and Central Asian Affairs.

"For the most populous region in the World, it is important that I have someone I can fully trust to deliver on my agenda and help us 'Make America Great Again'," the president said on social media.

Gor played a major role in the political action committee (PAC) of Trump's campaign in the run-up to the 2024 presidential election and his influence increased manifold after he was tasked of vetting political appointees in the new administration.

In January, the then US ambassador to India, Eric Garcetti, stepped down from the post, paving the way for the Trump administration to appoint its new envoy.

US Vice President JD Vance, Secretary of State Marco Rubio and Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick welcomed Trump's decision to nominate Gor as the next ambassador to India. There were reports that Gor played a role in Trump's drama-falling out with tech billionaire Elon Musk, who had even described Gor as a "snake".

The process of confirmation by the Senate of Gor's new assignment will be the next step.

"I am pleased to announce that I am promoting Sergio Gor to be our next United States Ambassador to the Republic of India, and Special Envoy for South and Central Asian Affairs," Trump said in a social media post. As director of presidential personnel, Sergio and his team have hired nearly 4,000 'America First Patriots' across every department of our federal government in record time, he said.

Sergio is a "great friend", who has been at "my side" for many years, the US president said, adding he worked on my "historic presidential campaigns", published my best-selling books, and ran one of the biggest "Super PACs".

The US president said Gor will remain in his current role at the White House until his confirmation by the Senate.

In his reaction, Gor said he was "beyond grateful" to Trump for showing "incredible trust and confidence" in nominating him to be his next US ambassador to India and the special envoy for South and Central Asian Affairs.

Govt clarifies no unblocking order issued on TikTok

OJASVI GUPTA
New Delhi, August 23

CHINESE VIDEO MAKING platform, TikTok has not been retrieved by the government, official sources clarified following reports that TikTok's official website had become partially accessible in India.

"Government of India has not issued any unblocking order for TikTok. Any such statement/news is false and misleading," government sources said.

As reported by FE earlier, TikTok's official website was accessible featuring the home page, while major sections were missing. The official app is however unavailable on both Google Play Store and Apple App Store.

Sources have clarified that the website's blockage was maintained by the Internet service providers (ISPs), raising concerns as to how it appeared for some users.

The short video app, owned by ByteDance, was imposed a ban under Section 69A of the IT Act in the country following the Galwan Valley clash between Indian and Chinese troops in June 15 and June 16, 2020 at the western sector of the line of actual control (LAC) in eastern Ladakh.

Many users had shared screenshots of the website on social media apps speculating that the ban to be lifted after the partial website restoration. TikTok's website showing up in India could be the result of a network-level misconfiguration, stated TechCrunch. A similar incident happened back in September 2022, which was soon after rectified.

NEW CHAPTER FOR CULTURAL ICON

Screen Awards to now be digital-first with YouTube

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, August 23

AFTER A HIATUS, The Indian Express Group is bringing back the prestigious Screen Awards this year and adopting a digital-first approach by collaborating with YouTube. The Screen Awards 2025, which represents a powerful blend of editorial credibility, cultural legacy, and digital reach, is backed by The Indian Express Group's journalism-first ethos. The winners will be chosen by the Screen Academy — an independent, not-for-profit body of acclaimed filmmakers, artists, and cultural voices committed to recognising true excellence.

Speaking on the collaboration, Gunjan Soni, managing director, India, YouTube said: "We are thrilled to be the digital home for the Screen Awards, bringing a cultural icon to its next chapter. YouTube is where billions of fans connect with the entertainment they love, and we're excited for them to experience one of cinema's biggest nights in an immersive way. By bridging Bollywood's biggest stars with YouTube's most influential creators, we're building an engaged community for an iconic event and unlocking the power of fandoms." Taking a digital-first approach to content and format, the Screen Awards will stream on YouTube — offering open access to global audiences. For the first time ever, Bollywood's biggest stars will share the spotlight with YouTube's most influential creators, who will be woven into every leg of this three-month-long festival — from red carpet and behind-the-scenes content to creator-led storytelling and fan engagement.

This collaboration reflects a fundamental shift in how audiences consume entertainment, driven by significant trends in India's entertainment landscape, including surging internet penetration, rapid growth in Connected TVs (CTV), and increasing mobile consumption. In fact, CTV has been YouTube's fastest-growing screen in India for the last five years, reinforcing the platform's unique position to make premium content accessible on every screen and in every format.

Elaborating on the upcoming edition of Screen Awards, Anant Goenka, executive director of The Indian Express Group, said: "Indian cinema deserves a stage that celebrates creativity beyond collections. Our storytellers carry 1.4 billion dreams — rooted in tradition and racing toward an exciting future. This award will honour that spirit and spotlight India's boldest, most original voices. We're thrilled YouTube shares our enthusiasm for this endeavour."

With unparalleled reach in India and globally, YouTube is an ideal home for the Screen Awards. According to Com-Score, YouTube reaches four out of five internet users in India aged 18 and older, while entertainment videos on the platform generated over 7.5 billion daily views worldwide in 2024. Highlighting the legacy of Screen Awards, Priyanka Sinha Jha, curator of the Screen Awards, said: "Established in 1995, Screen Awards has a legacy of firsts: the first jury-based film award in India, the first award show the Oscars management attended and vouched for, and the first accolade earned by several of today's superstars."

With the inception of The Screen Academy and our partnership with YouTube, we mark another first for India — building on our reputation for presenting the nation's most credible and coveted awards, delivered with path-breaking entertainment."

Apple claims Oppo stole trade secrets

BLOOMBERG
August 23

APPLE HAS ACCUSED smartphone maker Oppo in a lawsuit of poaching a highly paid member of the Apple Watch team and encouraging him to steal trade secrets for his new job with the Chinese firm. Sensor system architect Chen Shi secretly accessed confidential documents on Apple's health-sensing technologies for Oppo's benefit to develop a competing wearable device before departing Apple in June, according to a complaint filed Thursday in federal court in San Jose, California. "Concealing his impending employment with a direct competitor, Shi set up and attended dozens of one-on-one meetings with Apple Watch technical team members to learn about their ongoing research," according to the complaint. In addition, "late at night just three days before leaving Apple, Shi downloaded 63 documents from a protected Box folder," according to the complaint. "He then transferred them to a USB drive one day before his departure." Apple has filed numerous suits in recent years accusing employees and rival companies of breaching contracts and stealing valuable intellectual property. At least three of the iPhone maker's former engineers who worked on its now abandoned EV autonomous driving project have been criminally prosecuted for allegedly taking secrets to China. The tech giant also has been locked in a court battle with Irvine, California-based Masimo Corp since 2020 over smartwatch technology. Shi concealed his defection to Oppo, by falsely telling his colleagues at Cupertino that he was returning to China to take care of his aging parents, as per the complaint.

Coca-Cola likely to sell Costa Coffee

US SOFT DRINKS company Coca-Cola is working with investment bank Lazard to review options, including a potential sale, of British coffee chain Costa, which it acquired in 2018 for over $5 billion, Sky News reported on Saturday.

Coca-Cola, Costa, and Lazard did not immediately respond to requests for comment.

Coca-Cola has held initial talks with a small number of potential bidders for Costa, including private equity firms, Sky News reported, citing unidentified sources.
